

Other heritage

In every village you have a chance to see a church with a typical local tower, houses with wooden walls and fountains as testimonies of the old times... sometimes you will hear the unic and surprising history of "Rouliers du Grandvaux".

THE CAVES OF MOIDONS

📍 MOLAIN

10 minutes from Arbois, discover the most beautiful stalactites in the Jura region. Pools of water are set off by spectacular lights and sounds which make Moidons caves an exceptional site. Visit of the most beautiful stalactites of the Jura.

VISITE GUIDÉE DE LA MAISON DU PEUPLE

📍 SAINT CLAUDE

ST REMI CHAPEL

📍 NANCHEZ

The chapel was built in 1484. Its bell was blessed in 1488. It is the oldest bell in the diocese. Free visits on booking.

Maison du Peuple (The People's Home)

📍 SAINT-CLAUDE

Legacy of a utopia, the La Fraternelle association has been bringing the People's Home of Saint-Claude back to life since 1984. Today, this venue of remembrance, shows and contemporary creativity offers a permanent exhibition on the history of cooperation and working life in the Jura region in...

LOUISE MIGNOT'S FARM

📍 SAINT LAURENT EN GRANDVAUX

This old farm has been renovated in a museum about life in Haut Jura, traditions, cultures...

VISITE DE L'ÉGLISE DE L'ABBAYE

📍 GRANDE RIVIERE

VISITE DE L'ÉGLISE DE L'ABBAYE (copie)

📍 GRANDE RIVIERE

ATELIER DES SAVOIR-FAIRE - SENTIER DES SAVOIR-FAIRE

📍 RAVILLOLES

Five areas will enable you to find out more about woodturning, Haut-Jura craftsmen and art and craft occupations. From the raw materials to the finished objects, from the tool to the skilled hand, thousands of items reveal this rich know-how. With temporary exhibitions and special events all year...

THE CHATEAU DE JOUX

📍 LA CLUSE-ET-MIJOUX

A veritable synthesis of 1,000 years of the history of fortification architecture, the Château de Joux experienced many of the major European conflicts: passage of Charles the Bold in 1476, occupation during the Thirty Years' War in 1639, the signing of the surrender during the French conquest of...

